

Note Wednesday Night Meeting!!!! Washington Pilots Association North Sound Chapter

Featured Speaker

Joanne and Wally Weller and flying from Blakely Island

Joanne and Wally Weller have owned property on the north end of Blakely Island, properly known as San Juan Aviation Estates since Dec. of 1986. They moved from Mercer Island, and became full time Blakely residents in 1995. Joanne is a retired Canadian nurse and history buff. Wally is a retired airline pilot who has been flying since 1957, and has built a Seawind amphibian which is still in testing.
