

The real work—Vaughn and the Blacks had everything under control.

The Confederate Air Force supplied the airplane, NSC-WPA did the food, Heritage Flight Museum provided the location and support.

You may recognize Betty Grable, and perhaps some of the other WPA members that worked on Saturday, Paul Zosel, me, Dave Grant, Les Seelye, Maureen Griggs and Jeff Geer. Margaret Landis took the photo.