
THURSDAY JANUARY 12, 2017

Charlie Rehberger gives a presentation on Flying a Russian airplane with the Cascade warbirds

A Photo of Charlie with his Yak 52

Doors open at 6pm
Meeting at 7pm
Speaker at 7:15pm

*Flying an exhibition experimental airplane from the former Soviet Union, and the rewards of flying with fellow Warbird pilots with the Cascade Warbirds association.

Biography:

Charlie took his first flight in a Cessna 150, in the baggage compartment, with his Father at the Bellingham airport when he was 8 years old.
Since then, while working as a commercial pilot, Charlie has flight instructed at Harvey field, flew at Air San Juan based in Friday harbor, flew for Horizon airlines, flown at United for 18 years and currently flying the 777 out of San Francisco.

WECU Meeting Room
511 E. Holly