Committee Reports:

GA Day, Jim & Marilyn Fries: Need more volunteers, wanted aircraft for static display. Currently have only 10 aircraft registered for static display. Registration form is available through Jim jrfries@comcast.net. Greg Bell's wife, Lori, will be doing face painting, which will be sponsored by Key Bank of Harbour Pointe. Next 2 meetings are on Monday, April 7th, 1. Noon 2. 7 pm at Airport Conference room. B52 pull was denied by the Air Force.

Membership, Dick Kinnier: We are currently within 10 of our last year's membership count. Current count is 180 members. Request for putting a roster together was accepted by Jerry Blanchard.

Aviation Academy, Greg Bell reporting for Kevin Kelly: Aviation Academy is full and there is a waiting list of 5 students.

WINGS, Dave Wheeler: WINGS is cancelled for this April due to technical difficulties with registration.

Program: Jim Goodall on the Comet Restoration followed by a tour of the project.

Meeting facility was changed to the MOF Restoration Facility and dinner was catered. Attendees toured the facilities until closing.
